

MORDEN HALL

YOUR LOVE STORY BEGINS HERE

When it comes to weddings, there can be nothing finer than a romantic country house steeped in history. Built in the 1700s but lovingly restored in 2015, Morden Hall has been brought into the now with an eclectic mix of designs to create a calm, relaxing and inspiring environment.

CHERRY

Cherish those precious pre-ceremony hours in our stunning Cherry suite. A dressing room complete with relaxation area and opulent bathroom, it's the perfect area to prepare for that 'I do' moment.

“We were blown away by the elegance of Morden Hall: the period feature fireplaces, that staircase, the décor, the light that runs through it and the layout are all fabulous... and we love the freedom given in terms of set-up.”

WILLOW

At the very heart of Morden Hall, the light-filled Willow room seats up to 120 for a civil ceremony. There can be nothing more romantic than gliding down its magnificent staircase before saying your vows.

“My favourite element of Morden Hall has to be the staircase. I can’t wait to walk down it for my wedding ceremony!”

Tara & Aaron

HAWTHORN

The exquisite Hawthorn room is a chic drawing room with enviable parkland views. Its grand open fire, sash windows and high ceilings are complemented by striking patterned wallpaper and statement lighting.

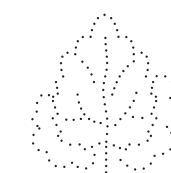

OAK

An intimate space with doors leading onto the North Lawn, the Oak room is a hidden gem on the ground floor of Morden Hall with its versatility making it a valuable addition to any wedding day.

MULBERRY

With its magnificent vaulted ceiling, the Mulberry room has an instant wow factor. Seating up to 150, this great room is the setting for the wedding breakfast, where fine dining and exquisite décor go hand in hand.

FINE DINING

No celebration is complete without an exceptional dining experience and meticulous planning from the talented on-site Catering Team. Taking care of your every need with meticulous service.
